SAM JENKINS CAMPAIGN

Media Advisory

Shreveport, LA - Shreveport council-member Sam Jenkins has decided he will not seek the office of Mayor in this fall's election.

"I could pretend otherwise," said Jenkins in a prepared statement "but the truth is there are presently issues in my life that do now, and would continue to, distract from my potential candidacy. I care too much about the future of our city, my family and friends to move forward with a race for Mayor."

"I thank those who have voiced their support for me and I encourage those who do run for Mayor of Shreveport to campaign on the issues, the quality of life and the future of our city."
